From the Pastors

Dear Parish Family,

How wonderful and mysterious is the world in which we live! God has done marvelous things. We live and stand before His holy majesty, though hidden from our eyes until the end of time. Yet, "The heavens declare the glory of God and the sky above proclaims His handiwork." (Psalm 19: 1 ESV) The odds of our coming into existence were small, but here we are in this Christmastide, celebrating the birth of the Son of the Most High God, a title for Jesus given in the announcement of the angel Gabriel to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Here we are immersed in the joy of being God's children through our redemption in Jesus Christ.

The Blessed Virgin Mary rejoiced in the Magnificat (a song we also sing), a title from the first word of the Latin version. Elizabeth told her cousin Mary that when she heard Mary's greeting, the unborn John leaped with joy in her womb. Elizabeth blessed Mary for believing the message of Gabriel. Mary responded in joyous song. "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my savior; ... (Luke 1: 46-47 ESV) What tears of joy must have embraced her cheek!

The soon to be virgin mother obediently accepted the Word of the Lord through Gabriel. "And Mary said, 'Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be according to your word.'" (Luke 1: 38 ESV) Elizabeth told her, "And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord."

When Mary and Joseph presented Jesus in the Temple, they encountered Simeon, who took up the child into his arms and sang the song that we also sing, called in Latin the Nunc Dimittis. Simeon told them, "Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that is opposed (and a sword will pierce through your own soul also), so that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed." (Luke 2: 34 ESV) In her song, Mary sang, "... he (God) has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts; he has brought down the mighty from their thrones and exalted those of humble estate.;" (Luke 1: 51b-52 ESV) What tears of grief must have fallen on the cheek of Mary when her son died on the cross, what tears of joy when she received word of His resurrection.

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Mission Statement

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church is a congregation of people of God, bound together in love for the purpose of glorifying God in worship and in fulfilling His will through spreading the Gospel of salvation in Jesus Christ to all humankind.

Altar Flowers

The Altar Flowers have been presented to the Glory of God by the people of Holy Trinity.

Altar Flowers must be ordered no later than the Tuesday afternoon preceding the Sunday they are presented. They may be ordered through the Church Office (215-659-2642). You may pay by placing $20.00 in a small white pew envelope checked "Altar Flowers." If you know it, indicate your envelope number.

Mary pondered the message of the angel and all the great events surrounding the birth of Jesus. So much more did she have to ponder through and beyond the day she sat with that company in the upper room that would take the message of the Gospel to the world. (Acts 1)

In the midst of astounding events she was faithful to the Lord.

Like Mary we have been brought Good News. Jesus Christ, the Son of the Most High God, has given us salvation. We rejoice in the birth of Christ. We weep at His death, but our weeping is quickly turned to joy at the thought of His resurrection.

During this Christmastide, may we know anew the joy of Jesus' birth. May we also reflect on the child as "a sign that is opposed...so that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed." (Luke 2: 34b-35 ESV) We think of Christ's enemies including Satan himself working against His mission. Yet in the end Christ's suffering and crucifixion result in victory and joy. The crucifixion is itself a victory, for Jesus died as a ransom for us sinners.

May the joy of the Gospel be strengthened in our hearts during the twelve days of Christmas and may we be faithful disciples like Mary as we travel through this world.

In Christ,
The Rev. Dr. Michael G. Tavella
The Rev. N. Amanda Grimmer

December 1, 2014

Dear Deb,

Thank you to the Youth and the adults who provided childcare on Saturday. It provided a fun-filled day for Gloria and gave me much needed time to do some chores and some Christmas shopping. Each craft, video, snack, lunch and dessert was a delight to Gloria. She fell in love with every caregiver and continues to enjoy the treasures she brought home. Thank you for offering this gift to the parents and the children. We appreciate it.

Truly,
Nancy Ischinger

Calling all...

Women of Holy Trinity

We would love to have you attend one of the circles listed below. If you are already in a circle, then we look forward to seeing you at our January gatherings. If you are new to Holy Trinity or have not yet visited a circle, then we hope you will select a circle to visit this month. You will enjoy lively discussions of Bible-based topics, refreshments and social time. For more information, contact any of the circle leaders listed below.

This year's topic will be on:

DANIEL

Spiritual Living in a Secular World

With the exception of a special Christmas story and two Lenten studies, the Lutheran Church Women of Holy Trinity will be studying the book of Daniel in their circles during the 2014-15 activity years. Each month the focus will be on two inspiring topics as they read and discuss how the words in this part of Scripture relate to and underscore their lives today.

January

On the Menu at the Lions' Club

In Daniel chapter 6, we read again the story we have all heard since childhood-Daniel in the Lion's Den. Do we recall that he is not put there for bad behavior but for godly behavior? This Bible story will lead us to consider how we expect to have difficulties when we err in our ways and conversely hope for thanks, reward, and/or appreciation when we believe we have done the right thing. But then we must think about those situations where wrong seems to be rewarded and good results in persecution.

A Prophetic Panorama

In Daniel 7, God gave Daniel a most disconcerting vision through a nightmarish dream. We will discuss specific aspects of Daniel's dream and share what one question we would each like to ask God if we had the chance right now.

The Bible as the Source of Faith

*For the Word of God is sharper than any two-edged sword –
is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path*

the Bible

Pastor Mandy is offering a 10 Week course on
“The Bible As The Source of Faith.”

This course will meet Jan 20 – March 25, 2015.
on Tuesdays at 1:00 pm with repeat at 7:00 pm.

In this course we will look at the nature of God’s Word in the broadest sense, applying it specifically to how we understand the nature of the Bible as the written Word of God. By focusing on a functional definition of Scripture’s power, we will look at what the Bible IS, based on what it DOES – in particular, how the Scriptures convey the promise of Jesus Christ, and how God uses His Word to create faith by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Interested participants are invited to sign up on the sign-up sheet in the narthex.

There will be a text book in addition to your Bible. Cost of the text book will be $10.00.

On Tuesdays after Easter, (April 21 – May 19, 2015)

Pastor Mandy will offer a 5 week course on

The Basics of Liturgical Worship,

on Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. with repeat at 7:00 p.m.

Have you ever wondered why we don’t sing
“Contemporary Praise Songs” during worship at Holy Trinity?

Have you ever wondered why we follow the Church Year or the Lectionary?

Have you ever wondered why the Liturgy follows the “set pattern” that it does?

Come to Pastor Mandy’s five sessions on Liturgical worship.
