

TRANSFORMING LIVES THROUGH PRAYER

How to give hope to this little children?

I had the opportunity to visit the Lutheran Elementary School in Boma and talked with students, teachers and the school director. One of the most critical thoughts everyone said is the difficult of paying the tuition that cost between $20 & $30 every trimester as the director said that among 350 students, only 80 students whose parents are capable to pay. for this trimester kids of 6 grades who owe the school will not allow to participate in final exams. Another claim they made is the condition of the class rooms as you may see in the picture, the room is dark, dusty floor and the walls are not finished. Teacher are proud in doing their job but no salary for over six months. Pray for them and think how can you help for the success of these little children. The last things to say about children is abandonment and starvation. Every day 3 to 5 kids comes and knocks my door for need of foods. Imagine that we cannot respond to their request because we don't have enough. If you serve 3 kids they will let the others and you may be in obligation of serving all, please pray for the situation.

Women Gathering

Women of Lutheran Confession in Boma participated at a seminary led by Serafina Panzo about Gifts and Talents. The Biblical text used is in Acts 9:33-44. The speaker focused on how Christian women can be as an agents of changes in their families, churches & communities. The seminar was well accepted by the women but questioned about the gender equality in the family. In The DRC is a big issue as men doesn't have respect to women and the domestic violence and abuses are so visible day by day. The next seminar women will have will focus on gender and equality in Biblical Perspective. Pray for these women for strength and hope.

The routine life in the DRC

How hard it is to live the routine life in the DRC? In many time you may lose your hope not knowing what will happen tomorrow. You have light at night but by 5:00 AM the light is gone. Water may take 3 to 4 days without running, price for articles and foods are unstable and people lives under depression, stress and hopeless. The only way to get ride of its is for most of men drunkness, drug addiction and prostitution. The country is in a chaos, especially here in the West side of the country. Farms can produce crops but no road access to bring it to the city for commercialization. Please pray for the country and its people.

Invitation from Mayor

On May 3, 2016, I was invited by the city Mayor to lead a seminar related to sexual trafficking. The seminar was sponsored by local government with some keys holders from national and international NGO's. The theme captured the attention of many participants in acknowledging that the city like Boma has a big hub of sexual and human trafficking. The participants requested to do a survey a long the border between Angola and the DRC and to see how the two countries can work together for the security of the border and avoid or lower all traffic influence.

Enoque Wedding

We are so thankful to God for another wedding in the family, especially having another suitable daughter in law. Enoque is the Fourth born of the family and reached the age to take responsibility and to form his family. We traveled from the DRC to Philadelphia, PA, USA to celebrate with them this great day and tell him that we love him. Your prayers made this event successful and I want to thank also for all of you who been praying for their Wedding

Prayers request

Pray that God may provide tuition to children in needs

Pray for women in abuse situations and domestic violence

Pray for the economical problem that is leaving families in poverty

Pray for our families, children for provision and protection

Pray for the DRC government for the coming time of election.
