From the Pastors

Dear Parish Family,

Last Friday, I (Pastor Mike) travelled to Washington on a bus with people from Saint David's Roman Catholic Church, as I have done many times over the past twenty years. The object of our trip was the March for Life, held every year in January. Until this year, I marched with hundreds of thousands of others down Constitution Avenue to the capitol building and the Supreme Court. This year, I remained behind at the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception with Monsignor Bolger and Sister Mary Saint Mark. We older folks just don't have the stamina we used to have!

I spent the day praying and enjoying the beauty of the basilica. I overheard a Mass led by two bishops from North Carolina. I felt as if I was at the portal of heaven.

While we prayed in the church, many young people marched with the large crowd down the avenue. It is so encouraging to see them represent the Lord and His Church in a matter of such great importance, the preservation of unborn human life. I have great hope that the next generation will carry the torch.

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Mission Statement

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church is a congregation of people of God, bound together in love for the purpose of glorifying God in worship and in fulfilling His will through spreading the Gospel of salvation in Jesus Christ to all humankind.

Altar Flowers

The Altar Flowers have been presented to the Glory of God by the people of Holy Trinity. Altar Flowers must be ordered no later than the Tuesday afternoon preceding the Sunday they are presented. They may be ordered through the Church Office (215-659-2642). You may pay by placing $20.00 in a small white pew envelope checked, "Altar Flowers." If you know it, indicate your envelope number.

We are proud to say that our own North American Lutheran Church is pro-life. For many years previous to the formation of the NALC we languished in a church (ELCA) that had no pro-life commitments and still does not. Today our individual pro-life commitments are backed up by a pro-life church. It is good no longer to wander in the wilderness on this vital matter.

Once again, we will make available the NALC pro-life statement. It should appear in the narthex soon. I ask you to pray for the unborn. Pray also that people's hearts may be changed so that abortion no longer holds sway over our nation. More than 60,000,000 unborn have been terminated since the early 1970's. "A voice is heard in Ramah, mourning and great weeping, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because her children are no more." (Jeremiah 31:15 NIV)

In Christ,
The Rev. Dr. Michael G. Tavella
The Rev. N. Amanda Grimmer

Ponder anew...

The psalmist declares: "How good is it to sing praises to our God; for He is gracious" (Psalm 147:1) So then, let us worship.

God told the disciples: "This is my Son...Listen to Him." (Mark 9:7) We welcome all to worship at Holy Trinity, where we pause intentionally to listen to Jesus.

"Why are not our hearts continually set on heaven?" asks the 17th-century pastor and author Richard Baxter. Focusing on heaven stirs our faith, guards against temptation, eases suffering and makes us an encouragement to others, Baxter says. He urges: "Bend thy soul to study eternity, busy thyself about the life to come...and let not those thoughts be seldom and cursory, but bathe thyself in heaven's delights."

"Self-denial means knowing only Christ, and no longer oneself. It means seeing only Christ, Who goes ahead of us, and no longer the path that is too difficult for us...Self-denial is saying only: He goes ahead of us; hold fast to Him."

- Dietrich Bonhoeffer

NOTES OF THANKS

January 6, 2019

Dear Pastor Mandy,

Thank you so much for officiating Penelope's baptism. It was a beautiful service and a memorable event with God and the congregation. We look forward to teaching and helping her grow in her faith each and every day.

The baptismal gifts from the congregation were so thoughtful. She is a very blessed little baby! The prayer shawl and prayer is so special, we look forward to sharing that with her throughout her life!

Thanks again,
Lauren, Steve and Penelope Nedl.

I give thanks to God for the love and kindness shown by everyone here at Holy Trinity.

I am humbled to be so blessed by such a loving congregation!

In Christ,
Deb Mumford.

Dear Ann and Holy Trinity friends:

Thank you for your generous donation of items for the Good Behavior Store. The children will be excited to see coloring books, markers, colored pencils, games, Pokémon cards, fun paper airplane kits, toy cars, and so much more added to the store next week when they go "shop." You collected something to interest everyone and inspire them to work even harder toward their behavioral goals!

We greatly appreciate your ongoing support of our ministry. It is only through the partnership of caring friends like Holy Trinity that Silver Springs is able to assist more than 2,700 children and families each year through our Residential Treatment Program, Approved Private School, and Community Based Programs. Our goal is for all children to know they matter and, along with their families, to reach for and achieve brighter futures.

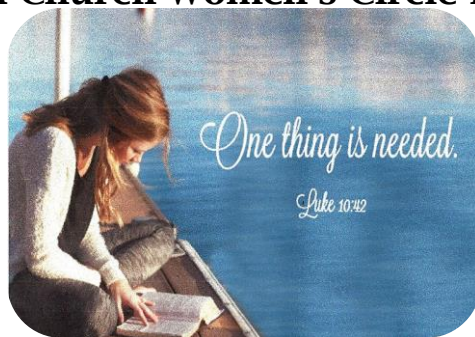

Sincerely,

FEBRUARY CIRCLES

Martha's Teachable Heart/Mary's Extravagant Love

"If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." John 8:31-32

"Then Mary...poured it on Jesus feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of perfume." John 12:3

This month we'll ask the question, "Are you teachable?" Jesus was and is looking for teachable hearts. Even though we all appreciate the thought of transformation, most of us don't like the process that gets us there. We'll take a little quiz to determine how teachable we really are. Jesus does a lot to prepare our hearts to listen and learn. Teachable moments. How do we react to being wrong and having it pointed out to us, as Jesus did with Martha? Martha had an open, teachable heart and transformed into the Martha we find in John 11 and 12. How can we be teachable? Three ways: Being willing to listen; Acting on what we hear; Responding to discipline. We'll ask the question, "How does God talk to you?" Do we want a holy makeover as transforming as Martha's?

We'll also delve into Mary's Extravagant Love. Mary had a heart of gratitude. The secret to happiness isn't in getting what you want, but in wanting what you have. We'll discuss the "two kinds of hearts" that Mary and Judas had. Which kind of heart do we have? Is it overflowing with gratitude or clutching with greed? Are we prepared to make Jesus our Lord?

We encourage all Holy Trinity women to consider attending a circle. If you are not yet attending a circle, please contact LCW President Nancy Ischinger (267) 803 - 1384 or by email at nancymaesch@yahoo.com or church secretary Deb Mumford (215) 659 - 2642, to explore what might work best for you.
