From the Pastors

Dear Parish Family,

From Pastor Mike's blog on The Templeton Project:

Dialogue and Personality

People differ, a well-known truth. In dialogue and witness it is good to be aware of this and to observe and learn about the person with whom you are speaking. In no way is such close attention to the other to lead to a patronizing or contemptuous opinion of that person. You may learn about an individual's concerns, burdens, fears, and joys, if you listen and do not stereotype. Such knowledge should not be weaponized to use against a person, but to help come to a greater understanding of the other. We should care about our neighbor and even our enemies.

We should try to understand the unbeliever and atheist. The atheist may be a convinced secular materialist that comes to the conclusions he forms from his education and reading. Other atheists may bear a deep sadness in their lives that prevents them from believing in God and His Christ. Questions of theodicy often play a role. How can a good God permit the evil that is in the world? is the central question. Due to life experience, people who have believed in God become unbelievers, though a tragic event in one's life does not necessarily lead to atheism. Some peoples' faith after a tragedy can actually be strengthened, often after great struggle in which they are torn between belief and unbelief.

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Mission Statement

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church is a congregation of people of God, bound together in love for the purpose of glorifying God in worship and in fulfilling His will through spreading the Gospel of salvation in Jesus Christ to all humankind.

Altar Flowers

The Altar Flowers have been presented to the Glory of God by the people of Holy Trinity. Altar Flowers must be ordered no later than the Tuesday afternoon preceding the Sunday they are presented. They may be ordered through the Church Office (215-659-2642). You may pay by placing $20.00 in a small white pew envelope checked, "Altar Flowers." If you know it, indicate your envelope number.

But, what if you meet up with one who is actually evil? Pray that the fruits of the Holy Spirit may work in you. They are love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, and faithfulness. You must also be wise as a serpent and gentle as a dove. The evil can be very cunning but can also be converted.

When engaged in apologetics, be concerned for the person or persons with whom you are speaking. Be careful of hasty judgments. Do not be dismissive of them. Remember that souls are at stake, nothing less.

In Christ,
The Rev. Dr. Michael G. Tavella
The Rev. N. Amanda Grimmer

Ponder anew...

The psalmist declares: "How good is it to sing praises to our God; for He is gracious" (Psalm 147:1) So then, let us worship.

God told the disciples: "This is my Son...Listen to Him." (Mark 9:7) We welcome all to worship at Holy Trinity, where we pause intentionally to listen to Jesus.

"Why are not our hearts continually set on heaven?" asks the 17th-century pastor and author Richard Baxter. Focusing on heaven stirs our faith, guards against temptation, eases suffering and makes us an encouragement to others, Baxter says. He urges: "Bend thy soul to study eternity, busy thyself about the life to come...and let not those thoughts be seldom and cursory, but bathe thyself in heaven's delights."

"Self-denial means knowing only Christ, and no longer oneself. It means seeing only Christ, Who goes ahead of us, and no longer the path that is too difficult for us...Self-denial is saying only: He goes ahead of us; hold fast to Him."

- Dietrich Bonhoeffer

NOTES OF THANKS

January 9, 2020

Dear Holy Trinity Family,

Once again, we want to thank you for your generosity. Over the years, you have never failed to support our organization and, in turn, our troops.

Please know that every dollar you donate and every item you give goes directly to our troops.

Thank you so very much for your kindness, generosity and support.

God Bless all of you!

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your contribution to assist Christ's Home with the care of children from broken homes. Your decision to support our Children's Services Program is touching the lives of dozens of children in residence, and by extension, their family of origin. You are helping to provide a safety net for children from many different circumstances requiring their temporary placement in our family-style cottages.

As we begin the year 2020, we offer our most sincere thanks for your kindness and generosity and pray that you will know the richness of God's blessing in your lives.

Sincerely in Christ,
George Zauflik

Dear and most precious sister Rosemary Hinkle!

Greetings to you in the most holy name of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. I have been remembering you and continue to pray for you. May the Lord be with you and strengthen you more. Your life and family have been a great blessing to me and my family and many of us in the Lord's ministry in India.

I just want to share with you these pictures and want to thank you for your kind support from the women's fellowship wing in your church. The pictures show 7 bags of rice; each contain 25 kgs of rice which means in total 175 kgs of rice, and sugar, Dal, surf, soap, mascito coils also are distributed to the Leprosy people. They felt so blessed to receive these blessings from you. Would you please share this with the organizers of the women's fellowship and convey our love and gratitude to the fellowship members. ## FEBRUARY CIRCLES

Love is Sacrificing and Serving

"Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave Himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God."

Ephesians 5: 1-2

Our topic of Love being sacrificing and serving in the month of February is well-timed. We'll be helped to see the sacrificial love of Jesus and we'll be asked to take on the challenge of doing specific acts of serving others with the love of Christ. Our society encourages us to look out for ourselves; to make our #1 priority meeting our own wants and our own needs in our lives. For us to serve when there will be little recognition or thanks is difficult and seemingly unrewarding.

The sacrificial and serving love of Jesus toward us is a sharp contrast to a self-centered society. He left heaven's splendors to face rejection, to suffer and ultimately die in order to meet our greatest need. Jesus' kind of love is never self-centered or arrogant. If we're to love as Jesus loves us, we must also learn to love with a love that's willing to serve and give sacrificially. Here are the 3 things we'll be focusing on this month:

- 1) To recognize and appreciate the sacrificial love of Jesus toward us.
- 2) To see how Jesus gave us an example of serving love in action.
- 3) To learn how we can overcome the natural human tendency toward selfishness and reach out to others with a serving and sacrificial love.

We will discover that there is a tremendous power in this kind of love.

We encourage all Holy Trinity women to consider attending a circle. If you are not yet attending a circle, please contact LCW President Rosemary Hinkle (215) 704 - 3701 or by email at rosemaryhinkle@comcast.net or church secretary Deb Mumford (215) 659 - 2642, to explore what might work best for you.
