Dear Parish Family,

We have come to the end of our tenure at Holy Trinity Church. We step down as your shepherds with heavy hearts while also looking forward to retirement. We wish that we could say farewell to you face to face.

You are a great congregation, and we have been blessed to have been able to serve you as your pastoral leaders. We will return later this year as regularly worshipping members of the congregation.

We ask you to continue the good work that the Lord has given you to do and has given to His entire church. While being intent on God's work, always remember the wonderful grace of God that has been bestowed on you from God the Father through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

We wish our best to Larry Guenzel as he steps up to serve as your interim pastor and also wish the new pastor of the congregation the blessings of God as he or she serves Holy Trinity.

We can say nothing better to end this letter than "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all." (2 Corinthians 13:14 ESV)

Always with love & in Christ

The Ideological Use of a Virus (Covid-19)

A virus is not just a virus. It has become the focus of the ongoing ideological battle between the left and the right. Stop reading this article if you think you will be disappointed, because I do not take a political-ideological position. Rather, I will attempt to take a Christian position.

The virus is not a Democrat, the virus is not a Republican. I would ask the virus to confirm this, but there would be no response. We assume the virus is not a rational being as we think of human beings as rational. Yet, grave doubts exist in my mind that we are rational. While the irrational has its merits, it does not work well within the context of a political-cultural debate.

What is playing out in America today during this Covid-19 era is the continuing ideological battle that can be configured as two opposing armies. In many cases opinions and judgments are not based on a concern for the general welfare of the people, but on the political advantage that can be gained in the war.

The Church has a role in all of this. It must show its concern through individual believers and in its corporate life for the welfare of congregations and, secondly, for the welfare of everybody. How is this manifested? Among these essential actions are a consolation of the anxious; pastoral care for every Christian, when the need is present; amelioration of the suffering of many people in these difficult economic times; aid to the poor; feeding the hungry; defense of the free exercise of religion, guaranteed by the First Amendment to the Constitution; sacrifice in doing our Christian duty, if necessary; bravery under fire; and witness to Christ with gentleness and respect.

The Covid-19 virus has revealed the character level of the nation, the church, and individuals. This happens whenever there is a life-threatening crisis. Let us pray that we may continue to be loyal to Christ, our Lord.

A Message from Council President John Minges

The Church Council held its May meeting via Zoom. The Council passed a motion directing the Executive Committee (the Council President, Vice President, Council Secretary, Treasurer, and Interim Pastor) to monitor local conditions regarding COVID 19 and based upon factual information from federal, state, and county health officials, and Dr. Todd Kuenstner, recommend when and under what circumstances Holy Trinity shall open for public worship and submit the recommendations to the Council. The Church Council will review any recommendations and vote to approve or not approve the Executive Committee's recommendations.

The Executive Committee met and set a possible date of Saturday and Sunday, June 20th and 21st for resuming public worship. These dates are subject to change. In summary, the committee is reviewing modified communion procedures and every other aspect of worship to protect the health and welfare of our members.

Even when we reopen, attendance will be optional as we understand many members have valid concerns about their health or the health of a family member. We will continue without interruption broadcasting worship via the webpage using our newly-purchased state of the art camera.

I look forward to the day when we will all be worshipping together again in the sanctuary; however, until that day I pray that we remember that our building is not The Church. We, God's People are The Church, and modern technology is enabling us to praise and worship God safely from our homes.

I am confident that with The Holy Spirit's guidance we will safely weather this storm and move forward into a bright future.

Special Message of Thanks and Offer for Prayer

On Friday of Memorial weekend, the church received a phone message from Advancing Native Missions. This is the Virginia-based Christian organization through which Holy Trinity Lutheran Church Women sent their fall Thank Offering directed to Pastor Martin Luther in India to use to feed the colony of impoverished people suffering from leprosy.

Advancing Native Missions was so appreciative of our gift to “the least of these,” and wants us to know that they personally “thank Holy Trinity’s Lutheran Church Women for their generous support” and to let us know that they (at ANM) are and have been praying for Holy Trinity.”

The caller then offered that if we have any specific prayer requests, we may either call their dedicated line for prayer at 540-456-7111 or email their dedicated line for prayer at church@advancingnativemissions.com. This is a sincere offer, so we hope anyone at Holy Trinity who feels so moved to make requests will do so.

Congratulations & welcome to God's World!

DAY OF THE CHRISTIAN MARTYR 2020 INDUCTEE PASTOR JEAN-PAUL SANKAGUI

According to church tradition, June 29 marks the martyrdom of the Apostle Paul. This year, Christians around the world will take time on June 29 and throughout that weekend (June 26 - 28) to honor the legacy of those who have sacrificed their lives for the advancement of the gospel.

PASTOR JEAN-PAUL SANKAGUI - February 7, 2017

Pastor Jean-Paul Sankagui planted a church in a Muslim neighborhood outside Bangui, capital of the Central African Republic, in 1993. He maintained good relations with the community for years.

But civil war between Seleka rebels, government forces and anti-balaka militias changed everything. Most of the pastor's church members fled the area as hostility increased toward Christians. And even the pastor's wife, Mary, urged him to leave the area and work someplace safer. But Pastor Jean-Paul stayed in obedience to what he believed God had called him to do.

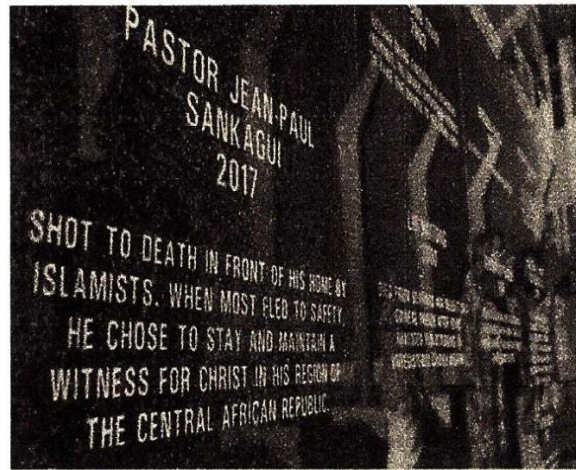

On Feb. 7, 2017, Islamists shot Pastor Jean-Paul to death outside his church in Ramandji before looting and burning his house and church. Mary said they killed her husband because the community no longer wanted Christians in the area. She and Pastor Sankagui had been married 48 years and had 11 children and 17 grandchildren. After losing not only her husband but also her home and all her possessions, Mary had no choice but to leave the area.

Five other evangelical pastors in the region also were killed in the first five weeks of 2017. Pastor Jean-Paul knew the risks, counted the cost and willingly stayed to shepherd his small congregation and serve as a witness for Christ in the neighborhood.

What is a martyr?

According to the original Greek, the word “martyr” actually means “witness.” Martyrs throughout the history of the church testified to the truth and power of Jesus Christ and believed that they should take that witness to others, regardless of the cost. These martyrs, including Pastor Jean-Paul Sankagui, have all shared a common passion for God. Their passion prevailed over their fear of the severe consequences of being caught sharing God’s love with others. Perhaps part of their passion came from knowing the high price of what they possessed. When faith costs us something, it becomes infinitely more valuable.

Inscription honoring the faithful witness of Pastor Jean-Paul Sankagui on the Martyrs Memorial at VOM headquarters in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

AND YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART
AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND AND WITH ALL
YOUR STRENGTH. — MARK 12:30

What does Pastor Jean-Paul’s martyrdom inspire?

Those who have given their lives for the advance of the gospel did so as the next step in their journey of discipleship. They did not simply wake up one day, living a marginal Christian experience and decide, “Today I’ll give my life for my faith.” No one is born as an exemplary biblical disciple (quite the opposite — we are all born into sin in a fallen world). Each of us must intentionally learn, obey and grow to become more and more Christlike throughout the entirety of our lives.

Each of us can be inspired to live faithfully for Christ by observing the transformative power of Christ in those who have paid the ultimate price. Drawing from their example, we can take the next step of obedience in our journey as a follower of Jesus. Always taking our next step is the mark of a maturing believer.

about these things

To all Circle members and the kind ladies of Holy Trinity who support our Lutheran Church Women,

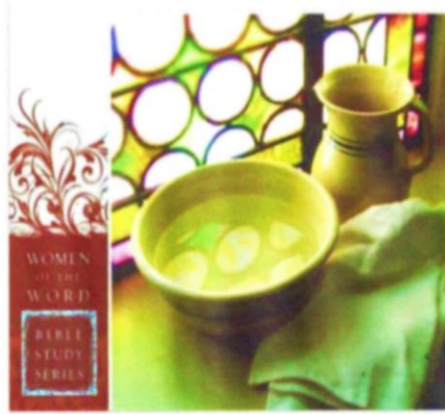

Circles were not able to meet for the most recent three months -- April, May and June. That means no offerings were collected. Our annual LCW budget depends on these contributions to provide programs and special events for all.

We pray that you will help us through this difficult time by making a contribution. Please send your offerings to the office: Attn: Joy Alderfer, 2086 Parkview Ave., Abington, PA 19001

With much appreciation,
Rosemary Hinkle, President.

Summer Means Start Thinking Shoe Boxes for Operation Christmas Child

Holy Trinity has been filling Operation Christmas Child shoe boxes since 2007. And we certainly believe that the Lord is blessing us to continue that tradition this year!

These boxes are important in two major ways: Initially, they bring much needed school supplies, toys, and accessories to boys and girls around the world where they are victims of poverty, war, famine, and/or disasters. Tens of thousands are currently living in refugee camps. Secondly and of lasting importance, they enable us to be the loving hands and feet of Jesus as each and every shoe box includes the Gospel story presented in a child's language and in a culturally appropriate way. Usually shoe box gifts are distributed by local pastor partners to open hearts to Jesus and church doors to entire families.

Not knowing what the future holds health wise, please prayerfully consider packing more individual shoe boxes than usual this year. We certainly plan to hold our annual shoe box packing party in November, BUT if the local health status changes, we will need your individual support more than ever. So please invite family and friends to join you in packing more boxes. As stores can hopefully reopen this summer (Walmart and Target have been open), please remember to include shoe box items on your list when you shop.

If you have been collecting empty shoe boxes, please leave them on the stage or in the office with Deb.

Boxes for all ages and genders are welcome, but there is a particular need for boxes for boys 10 - 14 years old. Next needed are boxes for 2 - 4 year of boys and girls.

Please NO PLASTIC CONTAINERS, which typically crack in transit; ONLY cardboard shoe boxes, unless you purchase the specially made plastic boxes from Samaritan's Purse.

Ideas of Where to Make Economical Purchases (as they reopen):

- Jane's Cottage, 1771 Old York Road, just south of Craft-Givnish Funeral Home
Jane will order quantities for you at reduced prices.
  - Dollar Tree, 200 Blair Mill Road, #5, Horsham
- Michaels Sign up in store to receive weekly coupons to use.
  - Kids' sections at TJ Max
  - Dollar(s) section at Target
- Walmart school supplies super sale usually starts by mid-July.

NO toothpaste, candy/food, breakable containers, lotions/liquids permitted.
Also, no items with US flags and nothing suggesting war.
