Dear Parish Family,

"In the Interim"

As we go through life, we often find ourselves "in between the times." Waiting at a red light, sitting restlessly in the doctor's reception area, the team sits in the locker room at the half-time. They are all "in between the times."

Some of those "in between the times" intervals last longer. A baby is conceived, and the expected nine months are "in between the times." An engagement ring is given and accepted, and then the couple is living "in between the times." In this COVID-19 world, we are all living in the time between complete shut-down and returning to living more "normally," whatever that may be.

The planet itself lives in between the times. The world right now exists in an in-between time known as an interglacial time. The last ice age was about 11,000 years ago. Yet you did not wake up this morning saying to your spouse, "honey, remember we are in between the ice ages." Nevertheless, the world does spin its way around the sun in between the glacial times.

How much of your life do you spend "in between the times?" waiting in lines, sitting at the end of the runway waiting for the take-off, waiting to go to sleep, -- all of these mark that margin called "in between the times." In one way or another, all of us are living in that no man's land all of the time. In fact, living between the times just belongs to the human condition.

Here at Holy Trinity, we find ourselves in a kind of "in-between-times" which we have not experienced for 33 years! We are between two Pastorates. As the Interim Pastor, I humbly accept your invitation to serve as your Interim Pastor in this in-between time. We have much to do in this interim.

Our Regional Dean, Pastor David McGettigan and our Mission District Dean, Pastor Dan Schaeffer will be working with the Congregation and Council to discern where we are in our ministry and what we feel, is God's design for our ministry in the future. My role is to provide pastoral leadership as we continue the day-to-day ministries to which the Holy Spirit is calling us. I look forward to working in this capacity in this interim period. I depend on the guidance of the Holy Spirit in this ministry. Please pray for me as I promise to pray for you daily.

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Mission Statement

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church is a congregation of people of God, bound together in love for the purpose of glorifying God in worship and in fulfilling His will through spreading the Gospel of salvation in Jesus Christ to all humankind.

Altar Flowers

The Altar Flowers have been presented to the Glory of God by the people of Holy Trinity. Altar Flowers must be ordered no later than the Tuesday afternoon preceding the Sunday they are presented. They may be ordered through the Church Office (215-659-2642). You may pay by placing $20.00 in a small white pew envelope checked, "Altar Flowers." If you know it, indicate your envelope number.

As we face the future in these in-between-times, we must remember that things will be different. We have many good traditions and practices as a congregation but we must also be open to the leadership of God, the Holy Spirit as we seek a new Pastor. We will be learning new ways, new traditions, new things that we have never done before. A wise saying that I learned many years ago is, "the last words of a congregation are: 'but we never did it that way before.'" Pray that we will be open to God's New Thing for us. (Isaiah 43:19)

We will be challenged to consider who we are and what is it that makes us the church of Jesus Christ. In all that we do it is the eternal Word of God that defines who we are and what we are called to do. As Lutheran Christians, we understand the Word of God to be: (1) the Holy Scriptures, God's inspired Word (Ps. 119:105); (2) the Message of the Gospel of Christ that binds us together (Eph. 1:13); and (3) Jesus, the Word-made-flesh. (John 1:14). We will center all that we do and say around that eternal Word. And as we live together as such, let us live together as brothers and sisters of Christ in this community. I think the words of St. Paul to the Colossians are good for us to consider:

¹² Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, ¹³ bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. ¹⁴ And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. ¹⁵ And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. ¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. ¹⁷ And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. (Col. 3: 12-17)

These are good words for us to live by in these in-between-times. Finally, also remember that we are living in-between the two comings of our Lord, Jesus Christ. By faith we look back to His finished redemptive work on the cross and in the open tomb, and we look forward to His glorious return. As redeemed citizens of a heavenly kingdom, we live in-between the times. We are the ones who affirm: "Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again!"

I invite you to join with me and the entire congregation as we face these in-between-times with faith in our Lord, Jesus Christ; a commitment to live as his disciples, following His Word; and giving thanks and rejoicing in His wonderful promise that "I am with you always, even to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:20)

In Christ,

Pastor Larry Guenzel, Interim Pastor

June 2020

My dear family of Christ at Holy Trinity,

We often call ourselves a family and we truly are. Haven't we yearned to be together, to see each other, to talk to each other, and to worship The Holy Trinity together? The Walk of Honor on June 13 was the first time we were all together for several months. In these difficult times, it was a wonderful way to say "Thank you" and to honor our retired pastors, Mike and Mandy. As I spoke with many of our family, I kept hearing I miss seeing each other, I miss worship, I miss being in church, I miss Holy Communion. As we begin to gather again for worship on June 20 & 21, we will be strengthened by the Word of God and the Sacraments in our common faith in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

But we are part of a larger family, the North American Lutheran Church. On June 13, Pastor Dan Schaefer, the Dean of our Central Atlantic Mission District was with us to participate in our pastors' final service at Holy Trinity. Pastor Schaefer was representing the entire NALC in giving thanks to God for these two faithful servants of Christ. He told me that being here with us that day was a blessing to him to see a congregation so bound together in love to celebrate and give thanks for their retiring Pastors.

Sometimes it is easy to forget the larger family and just focus on our own parish. However, we need the NALC and the NALC needs us. We can't do this ministry alone. After all, our search for a new Pastor is done through the leadership and support of the NALC. In my time as your Interim Pastor, I am hoping to increase among our members a greater awareness and appreciation for what our extended family means to us. Through the NALC we sponsor an orthodox Lutheran Seminary, we sponsor missions around the world, we respond to natural disasters, we are encouraged as we grow together in the faith and serve in North America and the world.

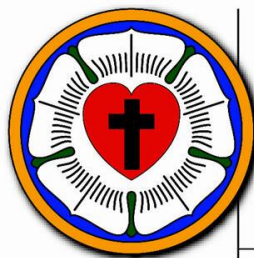

I ask you to expand your concept of church family and learn more about the NALC and all that we do together as a church body. The first way to do this is to pray for the NALC; our Bishop, Pastor Dan Selbo; our NALC staff; Our Atlantic Mission Region Dean, Pastor David McGettigan; our Central Mission District Dean, Pastor Dan Schaefer; and our congregations.

Please open your hearts and minds and read the NALC monthly newsletter. You can pick up a copy in our narthex and it is also available on the NALC website: thenalc.org. If you have the responsibility of giving devotions for a meeting, there is a wonderful devotional in each issue. This month our Bishop challenges us to evaluate our attitudes and actions toward those of different races. (This article spoke volumes to me.) There are articles on ministry with youth, seniors, and stewardship. It is an excellent resource and I am blessed by each monthly issue. Please read it!

I am so very thankful for you the family of Christ, Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church. May the Lord Jesus fill us with His grace; may the Holy Spirit guide us in the way of Christ; and may God the Father bless us as we live as disciples of Jesus.

In Christ, our Savior,

Pastor Larry

MESSAGE FROM THE President

Holy Trinity Family:

With Pastors Mike and Mandy's retirement Holy Trinity is now in a period of pastoral vacancy and transition. We are being ably led by The Reverend Larry Guenzel and are thankful for his leadership. Now that the pastors have retired, the church council is responsible for electing a call committee made up of six members.

Guidance on the call process can be found on the NALC website (thenalc.org) and navigating to the Call Process page where the NALC Call Process Manual and other Informative materials can be found. I encourage every member to review these materials and understand that church council has been advised that it will take up to 12 months or more for Holy Trinity to have a new pastor.

This coming Wednesday evening at the July meeting church council will be identifying members who the council believes possess the attributes needed to be on the call committee and then asking them if they would be willing to serve. Once the committee is formed, there will be a congregational workshop (see the NALC website for details) and the committee will review candidates.

If you would like to suggest someone to be a member of the call committee, or serve yourself, you may send me an email with the name of the person along with a two or three sentence statement explaining why that person ought to be considered.

You may approach me in person or by phone or email the church @ secretary@holytrinity.net if you have any questions about this process. You might think there is nothing you can do to contribute to the process; that is incorrect. You can pray for spiritual discernment of the council and call committee throughout this process.

NOTES OF THANKS

NAN AMANDA GRIMMER & MICHAEL G. TAVELLA
2536 DAMIAN DRIVE
HATBORO, PA

Dear Parish Family,

Thank you so very much for the wonderful send-off you gave us last Saturday, June 13. We have loved being your pastors for the past 33 years, and we are so deeply appreciative and grateful for the great outpouring of affection we received from you. Thank you.

I cannot express how much it meant to us to be named Pastor Emeriti. That is such a great honor, and it links us together with you until the day we are buried in Holy Trinity's Memorial Garden. All pastors hope for such an honor at the end of their active ministry, but very few receive it. Words cannot fully express our gratitude, but words are all I have so they will have to do. Thank you so much.

And thank you for giving us Pastor Mandy's office computer (after all relevant files had been copied to Deb's office computer.) Thank you for the large financial gift which will enable us to do several things to our house that we have been putting off for too long. Thank you for the altar flowers. And thank you so much for the recording of greetings and the Walk of Love. You totally surprised us! We have missed seeing you so much during all these weeks of lockdown. Thank you for coming out to see us off in person. We completely understand that many of you were too wary of contracting Covid-19 to come to see us off. But we are forever grateful to those of you who came in person, who made signs, and who even gave us hugs. Thank you so much.

One of the nicest gifts you gave us, I know you didn't mean as a gift to us. And it wasn't – but it was. One of the nicest gifts you gave us was the way that you continued to give financially through the ministries of Holy Trinity, even when the only way we could worship together as a congregation was digitally. I know this is going to sound much more awkward than I intend it, but the real measure of any pastor's ministry is not how much the congregation loves the pastor. The real measure of any pastors' ministry is how much the congregation loves and is bound to God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. As St. Paul says so much better than I, "He must increase and I must decrease." Your generous outpouring in response to God's love for you kept Holy Trinity going during these dark days of the Coronavirus. And even though that certainly was absolutely not a gift to us, I do thank you.

We have loved you like family for 33 years. And although we must step aside for a time to allow the transition to happen, know that you will continue in our prayers. And on Christmas Eve we will be back. We look forward to settling in as "regular members" of the congregation. We want to take our place among you as one of you, sheep of the same Good Shepherd. We wish you faithfulness, we wish you joy, and we wish you an increased closeness with the God who loves you so dearly.

Always with love,

Pastor Mike and Pastor Mandy

Dear Holy Trinity Family,

Thank you, thank you, thank you all for your prayers. I know God heard every last one of them. We also want to let you know how much we treasure all the cards and notes that you have sent us, and for your love and outpouring of support during all of the challenges we have faced and continue to face.

I want to especially thank you for the prayers lifted up for Gene regarding a kidney transplant, because, our God and Savior answered our prayers and Gene has a successful kidney transplant this past Friday, June 19th (Juneteenth) and is doing very well. He should be coming home on Tuesday, June 23rd. We are praising and thanking our Triune God for this marvelous and miraculous gift.

May God continue to bless you and keep you in His loving care.

In Christ,

Summer Means Shoebox Shopping

Why pack shoeboxes for children around the world?

Children who truly have little to nothing are overjoyed to receive school supplies, toiletries, toys, and accessories...things that are useful and needed, things that are fun, cuddly, and playful. Parents are thrilled for their children to receive gifts from caring people they will never meet. Everyone gets to experience the love of Jesus in an immediate way and through the Journey of A Lifetime 12-week Bible course offered to every child who receives a shoebox. Pastors often receive new families into their congregation because of these shoebox gifts.

SINCE 2007 Holy Trinity members have been packing Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes for boys and girls ages 2-14 throughout the world. We have sent several thousand boxes of God's love. With corona virus concerns raising the possibility of fewer contributors nationally this year, our commitment to shoeboxes is more important than ever! So please consider not only packing your own boxes, but also asking family and friends to participate.

Unless using OCC plastic, only cardboard shoe boxes. Plastic cracks in transit.

Some Ideas of Where to Make Economical Purchases:

- Jane's Cottage, 1771 Old York Road, just south of Old Welsh Road
Jane will order discounted quantities for you.
 - Dollar Tree, 200 Blair Mill Road, #5, Horsham
- Michaels Sign up in store to receive weekly coupons to use.
- Kids' sections at TJ Max AND Dollar(s) section at Target

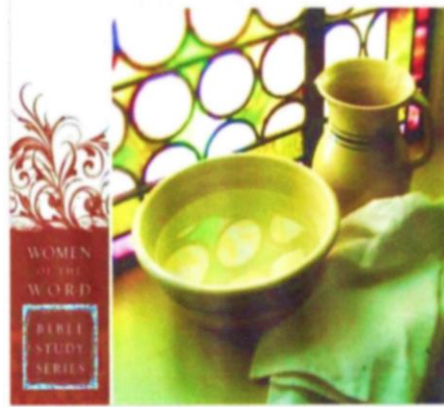

Quality Control: Reject cheap merchandise that won't last. Ask, would I buy this for my child?

PEOPLE'S EMERGENCY CENTER
Nurturing Families, Strengthening Neighborhoods, Driving Change.

School Supplies Drive August 2 through August 30

The People's Emergency Center needs our help.

PEC provides emergency housing and comprehensive services to over 200 families experiencing homelessness in Philadelphia every year. Because these families turn to PEC in moments of crisis, they are generally unable to provide basic needs for their children, including school supplies and school uniforms. PEC is deeply committed to the needs of these students and their goal is to provide every child in their care with at least two school uniforms and basic supplies such as:

- | | |
|--|---|
| Backpack & book bags | Alarm clocks |
| Composition notebooks (marble) | 3-Ring binders, dividers & folders (pocket & prong) |
| Loose-leaf paper | Ink pens (blue and black) |
| Dictionaries & thesauruses | Pencils, pencil cases & sharpeners |
| Poster boards & book covers | Markers & highlighters |
| Tissues & hand sanitizer | Rulers, compasses & protractors |
| Glue sticks, crayons & colored pencils | Child-safe scissors |
| Calculators (including scientific) | Rain slickers and umbrellas |

Holy Trinity has generously supported the PEC for many years and hopefully we can do that again. The list has changed slightly, so please keep an eye out for items on the list and leave them in the narthex during the Sundays in August. All Philadelphia public schools require the students to wear basic uniforms, which consist of a certain color pants and polo shirt. If you would like to help PEC provide uniforms, please place your donation in a brown pew envelope and label it "school uniforms". Checks should be made out to Holy Trinity.
