From the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

We have been considering the five Developmental Tasks that need to happen in the Interim Ministry. The final task is: Commitment to New Directions in Ministry. As we go through all the steps in calling a new Pastor, we will end up with a new Pastor. But the question is: Is that all you want? Are we simply looking for a hired hand to manage the preaching and worship and to make out the annual reports to the NALC?

The whole point of this process is that we come through it with a new vision of what God wants us to be and do in the Ministry and Mission of the Gospel at Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church. By the leading of the Holy Spirit, we will come through this with some new commitments about what is important and what is not. Moving through this Interim Period we will come through it committed to a new future and a new ministry.

Loren Mead states in his book, A Change of Pastors:
“The pastor you have selected has also selected you and you are bound to each other for a purpose: to build a worshiping, working community of faithful people who have discovered a direction of ministry and intend to pursue it together.” We will learn together, Pastor and Congregation, what it means to be the people of God, gathered around Word and Sacrament at this place and for this time. We are not in a “hiring process.” We will be transformed and our new pastor will be transformed as we seek God’s new future for us.

As we continue through this process, let us keep our eyes on Jesus. May we see Christ in each other and learn and grow in the faith together. Change is inevitable. It is part of life. It is how we grow and, when grounded in the Scriptures and the Confessions, God can use change to draw us into His purpose for Mission and Ministry together. In Isaiah, God speaks, Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

(Isaiah 43:19)

This was a message of Salvation and Restoration of the Israelites. It was the prelude of the Israelites leaving the Exile in Babylon to return to their home land. God is now leading Holy Trinity into a new future. We are grounded in the foundation of the Scriptures. We have been blessed with a strong past, now let us open our eyes and our hearts to see the new thing to which God is leading us. It's exciting to anticipate what God will do among us!

In Christ,
Pastor Larry Guenzel

LUTHER QUOTES:

"The more a person loves, the closer he approaches the image of God."

"Man is by nature unable to want God to be God. Indeed he himself wants to be God, and does not want God to be God."

"No greater mischief can happen to a Christian people, than to have God's Word taken from them, or falsified, so that they no longer have it pure and clear."

"A lie is like a snowball. The longer it is rolled on the ground, the larger it becomes."

"To serve God properly means that everyone stay in his calling, however humble it may be, and first heed the Word of God in church, then the word of the government, superiors, or parents, and then live accordingly."

transforming college students
to transform the world

Dear Linda Cassady,

"If I had known Christianity was really like this, I would have become a Christian a long time ago."

This is what Charli, a student at Columbia College in South Carolina, recently told her CCO campus minister, Jonathan.

Throughout the past year—a dark one by almost any measure—Jonathan has kept little lights burning “in hope and expectation of the light of Christ to dawn fully.” Nearly every week, he and a group of students have sat around his backyard fire-pit, surrounded by dangling Edison bulbs, sharing meals, praying, and discussing what it means to follow Jesus.

He admits that the darkness of the past few months has often felt impenetrable. “The challenges of social-distancing, meeting outside, and wearing masks add considerable inertia to things that used to be very simple,” he says. “But then, in a moment, little lights appear.” Like when Charli decided it was time to become a follower of Jesus Christ.

Thank you for your commitment to helping us introduce college students to the Light that cannot be extinguished—even in a dark season like the one we are all navigating right now. Jesus changes people’s lives, and we are privileged to point students toward a new and right way of living.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your gift to the ministry of Samaritan's Purse.

For many of us, 2020 brought uncertainty, fear, and even grief. As we look ahead, we do not know what the New Year has in store, but we can rest in the assurance that God is in control. Our Heavenly Father holds our future in the palm of His hands, and His plans are good. "I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope" (Jeremiah 29:11, ESV).

As Samaritan's Purse ministers to people in desperate situations, we share this hope with them: God has created them for a purpose, and He sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to offer them eternal salvation. Your gifts and prayers equip our teams to meet urgent needs in more than 100 countries and to bring the Good News to those who desperately need to hear it. Thank you for your partnership, and please continue to pray for the ministry of Samaritan's Purse in the coming year. May God bless you.

Sincerely,

Franklin Graham

Lent: Eyes On Jesus

Historically, Lent developed as a season of preparation for Holy Baptism. Liturgically and theologically, Lent is the Church's refocus on the significance of Holy Baptism. The daily drowning of the old Adam in us through contrition and repentance, which characterizes the entire Christian life of discipleship, is deliberately intensified during Lent as a renewal of faith and life in Christ. This repentance is always the divine work of the Holy Spirit through the Law and the Gospel. The Law crucifies the old Adam, and the Gospel raises up the new creation in us. Thus, a Lenten focus on the cross and Passion of the Lord Jesus Christ is not aimed at an emotional response but is a pointed proclamation and confession of the Law and the Gospel, a preaching of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. Lent is properly penitential when it brings the cross to sinners and sinners to the cross of Christ as the fountain and source of forgiveness, life, and salvation.

"O come, let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God." (Gradual for Lent, based on Hebrews 12:2)

When the characters in the Passion narrative look at Jesus, what do they see? In most cases, people misunderstood who He is and what He was doing. In some cases, by faith, people recognized Him aright. Our Lenten series this year, based on the Gospel according to St. Mark, will examine how the various people around Jesus viewed Him—and how we should view Him. We will "fix our eyes" on what Jesus has done to save us from our sins by His holy, precious blood and innocent sufferings and death, and celebrate what God sees on account of His work: our justification for His sake.

Eyes on Jesus will continuously focus our eyes on Jesus Christ and Him crucified, buried, and risen for our justification. This is a vision that will never disappoint, for by trusting in Jesus, He promises that we will gaze upon His beautiful face now by faith and forever in heaven!

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday service on February 17 at 7:30 p.m. Weekly mid-week Lenten services will continue through March 24, at 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Following each service, there will be a Bible Study on the theme, Eyes On Jesus. All are most welcome to participate either in person or virtually.

FEBRUARY CIRCLES

Stations of the Cross

"Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But He was pierced for our transgressions; He was crushed for our iniquities; upon Him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with His wounds we are healed." Isaiah 53: 4 - 5

Featuring three paintings from the Stations of the Cross series by artist Sybil Andrews, along with reflections from Isaiah 53, Romans 5 and Luke 15, our circles will ponder how highly valued we are to God that He generously offered up His only begotten Son on our behalf, in order to restore us to a love relationship for now and eternity. Here God demonstrates how precious we are in His sight. Yes, we see Jesus' pain. It's vital that we know our sins cause God to grieve. But even more so, see God's generous love - the love that would cause Jesus to endure the worst possible death on our behalf. This is what God has done for us.

We encourage all Holy Trinity women to consider attending a circle. If you are not yet attending a circle, please contact LCW President Rosemary Hinkle (215) 704 - 3701 or by email at rosemaryhinkle@comcast.net or church secretary Deb Mumford (215) 659 - 2642, to explore what might work best for you. New in the Church Library

Begin With Prayer by Kenneth W. Rogahn

Here's a book that will provide help for many in the congregation who are in leadership roles or are part of a committee, team, or group. The book provides brief opening and closing devotions as well as prayers for a great variety of situations. Group leaders may use the prayers and outlines for devotions as they appear in the book or adapt them to fit local situations. This little book is a gem for anyone leading devotions or prayers in the church, home, or community prayer group. It is on the display table in the Fellowship Hall this month.

Safety & Security Action by Church Council

During the December meeting church council received the property committee report concerning possible updating of the Church's security including replacing keys with an electronic fob that fits on a key ring, security cameras monitoring the areas outside around the church, and after-hours intruder detection.

After in-depth discussion of the issue, including church break-ins, employee safety, and being able to provide police with images to assist them in any investigation, the council voted in favor of accepting the bid of one of the competing companies.

Plans are being made to install the system this winter. While the way we access the building will change (a small electronic fob instead of a key), our building will remain readily accessible for all of our programs.
