From the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

In the previous months, I've discussed the five Developmental tasks in the process of going through a change in pastoral leadership in the congregation. These are:

1. Coming to terms with the past
2. Discovering a new identity
3. Allowing for needed leadership changes
4. Rediscovering the denomination
5. Commitment to new directions in ministry

With these Developmental Tasks in process, we still need to continue the course in which we find ourselves: change. Change is not a dirty word that must be avoided at all costs. It is part of life – I don't need to tell anyone that! Yet, we resist change. Some fear change. Yet, change is here and we are learning to live through it. Actually, the healthy congregation goes through many changes. If you look into the history of Holy Trinity, you will see changes that might have been difficult but, in most cases, the change led us to something better, more productive, more Christ-like.

Change and renewal in the Church is truly a gift from God. Through the Prophet, Isaiah, God says, "Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." (Isaiah 43:19) How can we possibly grow in our faith if we are not open to God's Holy Spirit leading us through changes in our life together for the sake of the Gospel?

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Mission Statement

Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church is a congregation of people of God, bound together in love for the purpose of glorifying God in worship and in fulfilling His will through spreading the Gospel of salvation in Jesus Christ to all humankind.

From The Pastor

God is leading us in this time of change and transition. As we learn from the past and trust in God for the future, we know that the changes into which God is leading us will be for the growth in our devotion to Christ and new ways of serving our neighbor.

May we continue to be a congregation that is open to God's leadership for us now and into the future. Pray that the DNA of Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church will be always open to the leadership of the Holy Spirit, no matter who our pastor may be.

Jesus is our Good Shepherd. He will lead us by His Holy Spirit into a new future. Let us "Keep Our Eyes On Jesus" and follow Him through the changes and chances of life into our new future.

In Christ, our Shepherd,

Pastor Larry Guenzel

Dear Members of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church:

We would like to take this opportunity to advise you that the John R. Freed Funeral Home of Glenside is arranging to have a young tree planted in memory of Paul C. Klass. This memorial tree will be planted on public lands during the earliest appropriate season.

The living memorial is a part of a large endeavor to restore the Pennsylvania landscape with the eternal beauty of living trees, for the benefit of all the residents of the state. As a broad reaching legacy to all, it will grow without personal inscription and become an important, enduring part of its natural surroundings.

We would like to extend our condolences to the friends of Paul C. Klass, along with the staff of the John R. Freed Funeral Home, who have provided this living memorial.

Sincerely yours,

Robert S. Pearson, President

NALC

North American Lutheran Church

Christ Centered

Mission Driven

Traditionally Grounded

Congregationally Focused

January 2021

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Now I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters, what God in His kindness has done through the congregations of the North American Lutheran Church (NALC). They are being tested by many troubles – COVID-19 especially – and have endured financial hardships. But they are also filled with abundant joy, which has overflowed in great generosity. For I can testify that they gave not only what they could afford, but far more. And they did it of their own free will. They excelled in the grace of giving. (2 Corinthians 8:1-3, 7)

Miracles do happen! The faithful support of congregations and individuals like you in 2020 allowed us to exceed budgeted revenues by $32,000. This is truly remarkable given the pandemic and its effect on our local economies. On behalf of Bishop Selbo and the entire NALC team, we want to say, "Thank you!" Your partnership and trust in us have allowed us to continue moving forward in the mission and vision of the NALC and growing the church of Jesus Christ.

Many new congregations have been added in 2020. New mission starts and house churches across North America have been formed and the number is growing. We have been able to continue our support of missionaries serving Jesus in Belarus, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Haiti, Tanzania and elsewhere. We have more than 40 future pastors studying in the North American Lutheran Seminary system. Your support provides needed scholarships to these future pastors which eliminate or greatly reduce the cost of tuition. The NALC Disaster Response teams mounted extensive and sustained aid efforts to those impacted by wildfires, flooding and hurricanes. You share in their great work.

Again, your great generosity and faithfulness to our Lord Jesus Christ and His church has exceeded our expectations for the year. Our prayer is that God will continue to bless you in every way in 2021, and that you, through the power of the Holy Spirit, will be strengthened and renewed in the service to which He has called you as well. We also pray that all our donors and congregations be restored to full worship and ministry capacity in the new year.

In the love of Jesus Christ,

C. Michael Johnson

Treasurer

North American Lutheran Church

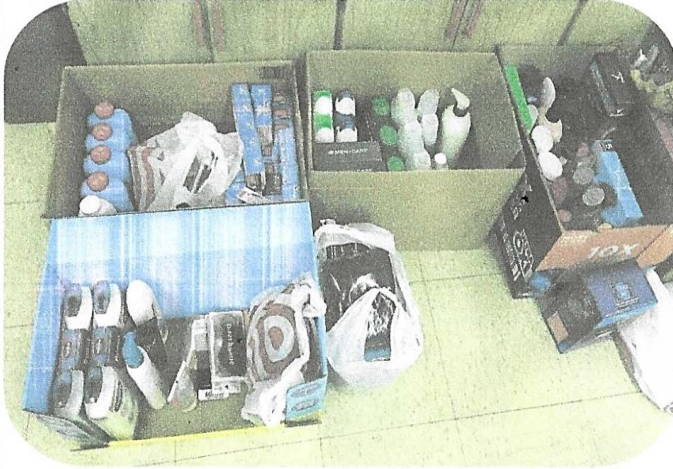

Thanks Holy Trinity

Cindy Biehl writes: "Freedom Steps and I are in awe of the congregation's generosity. We are beyond appreciative."

Holy Trinity folks were incredibly generous toward their service men and women serving overseas during our January Freedom Steps collection. Holy Trinity members provided 340 toiletries, 50 hand-knit scarves, 32 food items, several notes of encouragement, and donations of money to defray shipping costs.

Freedom Steps volunteers have packed 6 boxes for their Easter shipment and still have 2 boxes of toiletries left for the next shipment. Cindy's son Chris will be one of the Easter recipients. There is a box in the Narthex for ongoing collections following our January push. More notes of encouragement and supplies are always welcome.

Dear Holy Trinity family,

February 12th was the date for Holy Trinity's blood drive. There was a steady stream of people who arrived to donate blood; a total of 24 units were given. This number means that the Red Cross has the potential to save up to 72 lives. One or two of the units were identified as negative for CMV (a virus that most people are exposed to and have no problem with). But newborns cannot have blood that is CMV positive, so if a newborn need blood, it must be CMV negative. So at least some of the blood that was donated at our blood drive will be set aside for newborn babies that may need blood.

Many thanks to all who volunteered their time to make this a successful blood drive especially the donors!

The Blood Drive Team.

Lent: Eyes On Jesus

“O come, let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.” (Gradual for Lent, based on Hebrews 12:2)

When the characters in the Passion narrative look at Jesus, what do they see? In most cases, people misunderstood who He is and what He was doing. In some cases, by faith, people recognized Him aright. Our Lenten series this year, based on the Gospel according to St. Mark, will examine how the various people around Jesus viewed Him—and how we should view Him. We will “fix our eyes” on what Jesus has done to save us from our sins by His holy, precious blood and innocent sufferings and death, and celebrate what God sees on account of His work: our justification for His sake. ✦

For Lutheran Christians, Lent is a sacred season in which we focus on the message of the Cross for our salvation. It is a strong tradition among Lutherans to gather for mid-week worship and Bible Study. We are following in that tradition each week in Lent. Join us every Wednesday for worship and Bible Study at 9:30 a.m. and at 7:30 p.m. as we draw closer to Jesus and fix our eyes on Jesus. The evening service and Bible Study will be live-streamed for those who are unable to be present.

Then, finally, Easter Sunday, we will gaze upon “Angel Eyes.” The angel in the tomb knows the whole story of Jesus’ resurrection. When he sees the women, he proclaims the Gospel to them, shows them where Jesus’ body had formerly lain, and tells them that they can see Jesus themselves in Galilee. Likewise, the “angels” or messengers of the Church in the apostolic ministry tell God’s people where they can find Jesus and His salvation in the Means of Grace.

Eyes on Jesus will continuously focus our eyes on Jesus Christ and Him crucified, buried, and risen for our justification. This is a vision that will never disappoint, for by trusting in Jesus, He promises that we will gaze upon His beautiful face now by faith and forever in heaven!

MARCH CIRCLES

CHRIST CROWNED WITH THORNS

*“Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth.
For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.” Colossians 3:2-3*

As we gaze into the face of Jesus in Horace Pippin's portrait of Christ we will contemplate what comes to mind when we talk about “seeing” God? Where do we “see” God today? For millennia, philosophers and religious thinkers have contemplated the concept of “looking” and “seeing.” Scholars from Augustine to Luther and beyond delve into sight as not only a crucial bodily sense, but also a potential means to understand and experience divinity. As one of our primary physical senses, the power of sight on our human experience is immense. Combined with the Christian belief in God's grace, art can help facilitate on a direct sensory level our spirituality and experience with God.

We encourage all Holy Trinity women to consider attending a circle. If you are not yet attending a circle, please contact LCW President Rosemary Hinkle (215) 704 - 3701 or by email at rosemaryhinkle@comcast.net or church secretary Deb Mumford (215) 659 - 2642, to explore what might work best for you.
